BOER GOAT DEPARTMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The 2009 Indiana State Fair Open Boer Goat Show will be sanctioned by The American Boer Goat Association, San Angelo, TX.
2. Eligibility - Only animals registered in a recognized Association (International Boer Goat Assn., Inc, American Boer Goat Assn., Canadian Boer Goat Assn., The USBGA) may be shown. Only ABGA registered animals may be awarded points.
3. A registration certificate is required for all animals three months or older.
4. A stamped duplicate or faxed duplicate application showing the date received by a registry office is required on all animals under three months of age.
5. No copies of registration or stamped duplicate of official registration will be accepted by the show officials unless the animal is under 3 months of age.

6. The documents specified above as the requirements for that age animal to be shown must be presented to the show secretary before judging begins, and must be checked by the show secretary for verification of registration information.
7. Proof of ownership shall be the name on the registration document. Persons showing animals whose registration certificates have signed transfers that have not been processed must show those animals as agent for the owner.
8. All animals must be entered on the official Indiana State Fair entry form in the name of the registered owner. Any variation of owner's name on registration papers requires separate entry form and fees. Pre-entry of all open class Boer Goats is required. The entry form must be postmarked by 7/1/09 or all applicable late fees will apply. See entry form for a listing of all fees.
9. Regardless of the number of entries in each class by one exhibitor, only two premiums will be paid in any single class, excluding champion classes.

The Indiana State Fair Board is requiring all Indiana Exhibitors to provide the Indiana State Board of Animal Health required Premises ID number on all entry forms for beef and dairy cattle, goats, swine and sheep. Indiana exhibitors of horses, poultry, llamas and alpacas as well as out of state exhibitors will be requested to voluntarily provide Premises ID numbers.

To obtain a Premises ID # for Indiana Exhibitors please contact the Indiana State Board of Animal Health at 877-747-3038 Ext. 328. Information can be found on the Indiana State Board of Animal Health website at www.in.gov/boah.

Out of state exhibitors please contact your appropriate state agency for Premises ID number information.

10. Pens will be assigned by director. Pens are 6' x 8' and will hold 4 to 6 goats (wethers and does). If you want your goats separated, bring either 6' or 8' dividers. Pen partitions may not be removed.
11. The base date for computing ages for entries shall be the date the animals are to be judged.
12. Animals with natural horns or disbudded or dehorned may be shown at official ABGA shows without regards to discrimination.
13. An exhibitor that is showing an animal with a microchip as permanent identification is required to provide a microchip reader for verification of animal identity.
14. If an animal is registered in the ABGA, that registration number must be listed on the entry form.
15. The ABGA Judge's Committee reserves the right to send Trainee or Apprentice Judges to serve under a Senior Judge at any Sanctioned Show for training and/or educational purposes.
16. The show chairman and show secretary are responsible for the availability and enforcement of the ABGA terms and conditions, and certifying these terms and conditions have been met.
17. Entries may not be added or withdrawn from class without permission from show officials after the class is in the ring and judging has started.
18. In classes where there is no competition, only one goat in the class, it will automatically win 1st place.
19. An exhibitor shall not present an animal to be shown under a judge from whom it was purchased or possession within 90 days of show.
20. An exhibitor shall not knowingly show an animal that does not meet eligibility requirements.
21. An exhibitor shall not present an animal to be shown under a judge who is his/her immediate family or employer or employee.
22. Any judge being co-owner with another member/owner/exhibitor shall not be allowed to judge that member's animals for a period of six (6) months after dissolving ownership. Should this happen, all points awarded by that judge will be forfeited.
23. Any judge having any sale with one or more members that enhances either party's income, shall not be allowed to judge that person's animals for a period of 90 days prior to said event or 90 days after the event. If this happens, all points awarded by the judge during that time period will be forfeited.
24. The exhibitor shall take caution when entering their animals in a show not to compromise the judges integrity.
25. If a complaint is filed or we have reason to believe that an animal has been given growth enhancing drugs, we reserve the right to test the animal in question. If the animal tests positive, the points awarded will be forfeited.
26. No exhibitor will talk with the judge unless they are spoken to first, while in the show ring.
27. Any gates moved must be secured and returned to original position before check-out.

Ennobled Herd Book Points:

Goats entered under their ABGA registration number and presenting their ABGA Certificates of Registration will be eligible to earn points for their actual placing in the show as described in the ABGA "Criteria for Ennoblement of a Boer Goat."
